Step

Made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.

Tradition

Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers.

Concept

The trustees are the principal planners and administrators of over-all policy and finance. They have custodial oversight of the separately incorporated and constantly active services, exercising this through their ability to elect all the directors of these entities.

TeleService Report

Our TeleService calendar is being kept current by Central Office volunteers. Your new Board member, Russell J., has diligently coordinated scheduling for new members willing to be of service, enhancing our ability to be responsible to any alcoholic who calls after office hours. Please think about either yourself or a willing sponsee taking a shift to keep this vital service available to the Fellowship and any alcoholic in need of support in recovery.

Paul A. continues to be available to train new members who sign up. Thanks, Paul, for continuing to help make this a functioning project for us all!

Joshua Tree, The "Way of Life" women's meeting at the Faith Lutheran Church 6336 Hallee Rd. meets at 3:00 on Thursdays

Meeting gone dark:

Indio, The "Kisses" Meeting 6:00 P.M. that was held at the ABC Recovery Center is no longer in existence.

NOTE:

Indio, There are two Meetings on Thursday 7:30 to 9:00 P.M. at the ABC Recovery Center, 44374 Palm St.: the one in the Main Meeting Hall is a Men's Stag, and the one in the small meeting room is the Women's Candlelight Meeting

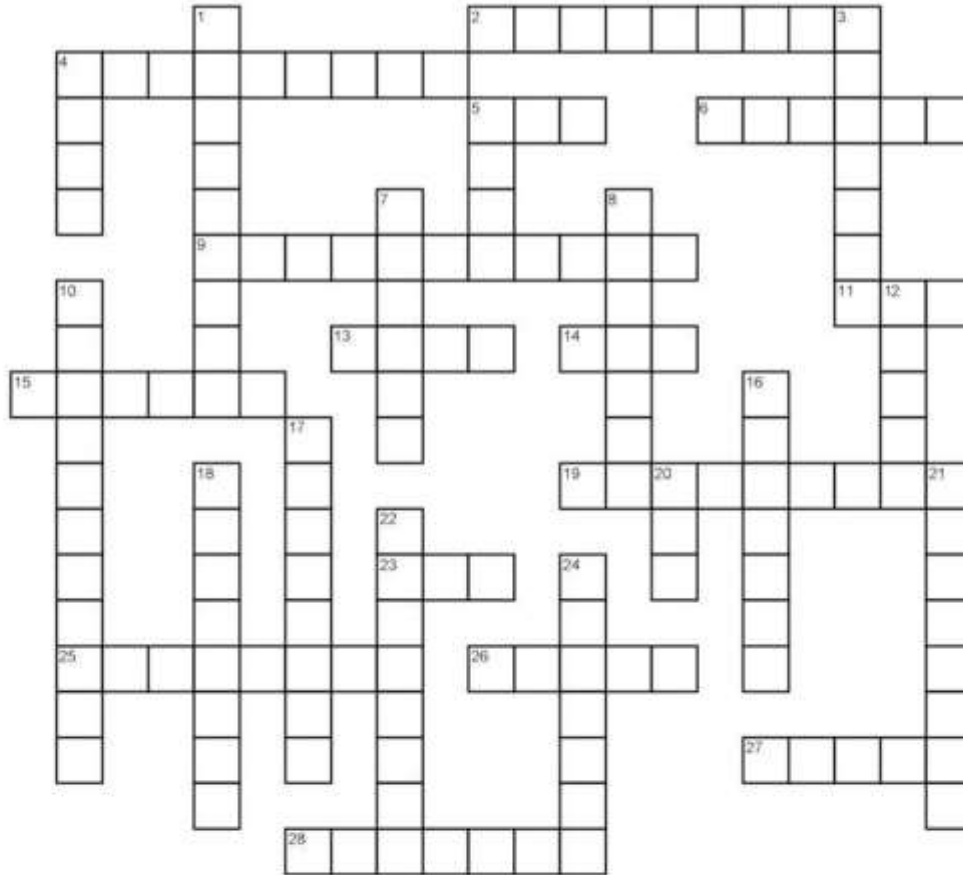

One day I grabbed a taxi for the airport. We were driving in the right lane when suddenly a car jumped out of a parking space in front of us. My taxi driver slammed on his brakes, skidded, and missed the other car by inches. The driver of the other car whipped his head around and started yelling at us. My taxi driver just smiled and waved at the guy. And I mean, he was really friendly.

So I asked, 'Why did you just do that? This guy almost ruined your car and sent us to the hospital!' This is when my taxi driver taught me what I now call, 'The Law of the Garbage Truck.'

He explained it this way, "Many people are like garbage trucks. They run around full of garbage, full of frustration, full of anger, and full of disappointment. As their garbage piles up, they need a place to dump it and sometimes they'll dump it on you. Don't take it personally. Just smile, wave, wish them well, and move on. Don't take their garbage and spread it to other people."

Tradition Eight

Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers.

This tradition cuts to the very core of A.A. To me it simply says that Alcoholics Anonymous is just one drunk talking to another to stay sober. This to me is the very essence of A.A. I have held many positions in my almost sixty years on this planet but above all I am first and foremost an Alcoholic.

Professionals in A.A. would probably destroy this program as we know it. As an Alcoholic, I need a level playing field. I need to be able to walk into a meeting (no matter where I am) and feel at home.

I went to Laughlin last weekend and attended the morning meetings at the "Bullhead City Alano Club". I only go there a couple times a year with the bowling league but the friends that I have made there remember me and I am at home there.

No professionals, just people like you and me, and of course "Whiskers", the neighborhood dog, who shows up on time and stays quietly through the whole meeting. I personally would be a lost soul without this program and the friends that I have in it. It is a gift from God and I will always try to respect that.

Alcoholics Anonymous will always be a safe haven to us as long as we respect and operate within the traditions and concepts of this program.

Randy H., Thursday Night Big Book, Yucca Valley

Early in sobriety I was talking with my sponsor about how much I disliked "religious people" --- they were so hypocritical, etc. He just kind of smiled and said, "Yeah. I bet you'd like them just fine if you were the pope."

He shouldn't have even put that thought in my head! ME in charge! ME! Oh. I see what he did there.

Thanks to Bruce M.

Overheard in the parking lot after the meeting:

"When your ass is on fire, get it to a meeting. That's where we keep the fire extinguishers!"

"Alcohol gave me the ability to fit in just about everywhere . . . except in my own skin!"

Thanks to Lindsey

I asked my sponsor, "What do you do when you finish working the steps?"

He said, "You lie really still, because you're dead."

Thanks to Bill S.

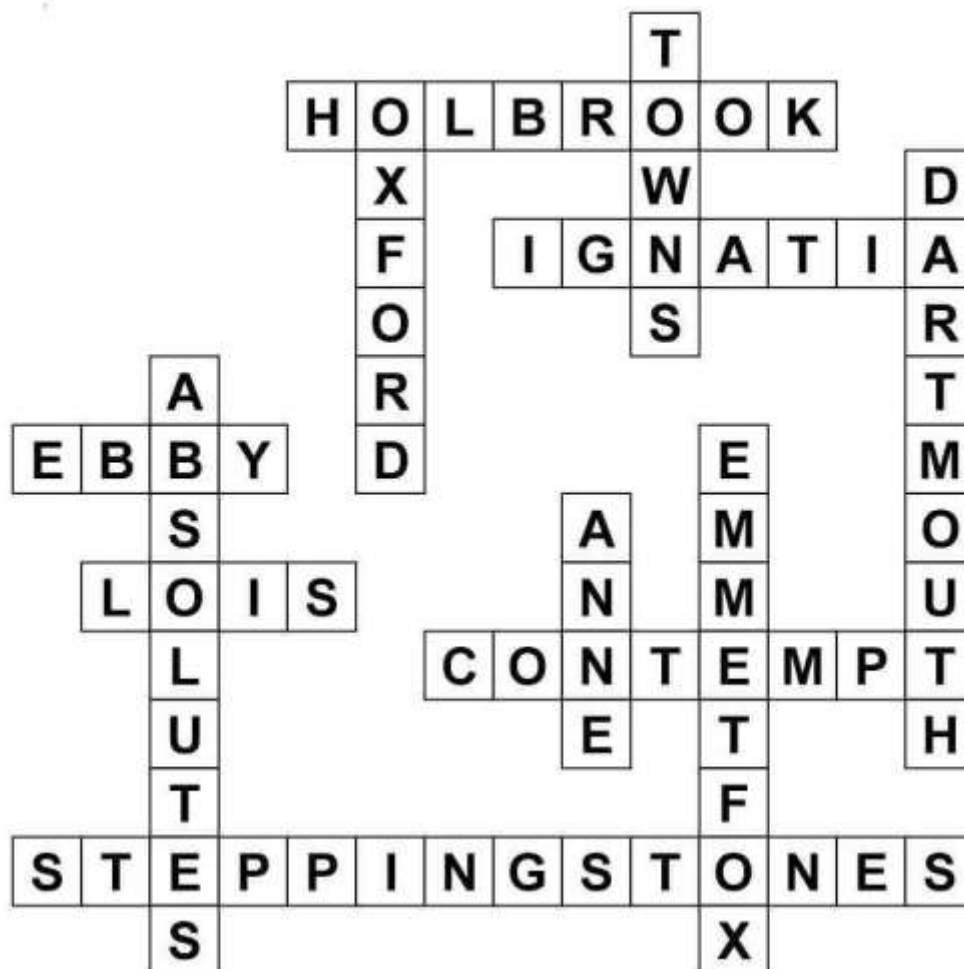

Concept Eight

The trustees are the principal planners and administrators of over-all policy and finance. They have custodial oversight of the separately incorporated and constantly active services, exercising this through their ability to elect all the directors of these entities.

This concept basically defines the responsibilities and influence that were outlined in the earlier concepts. It sets a boundary of the trustees in the A.A. Grapevine, Inc. and A.A. World Services, Inc. to the sort of oversight accomplished by electing the directors of these separate companies, but essentially discouraging them from assuming the daily role of executives or administrators of these entities. For me, this concept opens my mind to thinking how I should back off from trying to fix others and stay focused on what I need to accomplish in my life. I would be better off taking care of my own responsibilities than being too concerned on others affairs.

July Puzzle Solution

Lost and Found

The pain I felt before I slept each night
Turned to horror with moon's first light
For what I've done in the past
Shines in my mind as if in a looking glass.

It's been said "Only the Good Die Young"
Does that mean my life has just begun?
When asked what I've done with my life
I find no time to answer, my body's full of strife

My senses reeled as I regained my sight
It happens every morning at first sunlight
And though I feared to face each day
ONE thought gives me hope, I found AA

Doug D.

Edge of Tomorrow

I stand at the edge of tomorrow
No more pain, NO more sorrow
The book tells me "one day at a time"
And its worth this gold I have to mine
And its this gold I have to mine
I need to share this wealth
If I wish to keep my mental health
If God has His way
I'll stay sober today
And, for this I thank A.A.!

Doug D.

Denizens of the Deep

I found my best friend yesterday,
He couldn't keep his demons at bay.
Another causality of denizen Alcohol
Another soul who couldn't resist the call
There was an empty whiskey bottle by his head
And I had to find him....dead!

Doug D.

Falling Clay

I walked into the room
And suddenly no longer felt the doom
The desperation fell away
Just like so much dirty clay
My heart was suddenly lifted
As though a great weight had shifted
The Four Horsemen were gone
Why the Hell had it taken so long?
The Steps paved my way
So now I'm here to stay
Thank God for AA

Doug D.

Step Eight

Made a list of all persons we had harmed and became willing to make amends to them all.

Having loosened the knot of resentment by working step 4, and having allowed God to effect change in our darkest closets in steps 5, 6 and 7, we turn from cleaning house to cleaning up our yard.

Our resentments were killers, no question. But they were not the sole causes fertilizing our alcoholic shame and fragile self-opinion. The suffering we caused others while hungrily pursuing the bottle is an infection--- a festering sliver deep beneath the alcoholic's skin that, if left untreated, could grow into a full blown sickness, leading invariably back to his primary remedy for pain--- alcohol.

In step 8, we recovering alcoholics seek to set the balance right by making a thorough list of those persons who paid the price for our blind self-indulgence. We look back at the strides we have made in the preceding steps and find in ourselves the willingness to face those people we have wronged. Now that the true motives behind our resentments have been exposed, and knowing that God provides the strength needed to overcome our weaknesses, we openly and confidently prepare to look in the eye those persons we have harmed, and make our amends, simply and honestly, so long as no further harm comes to them or others.

We realize we are on the true path. For an alcoholic to own up to his behavior is contrary action---the very sort of contrary action that fuels spiritual growth, freedom, happiness, and an easy, intuitive grasp on life situations that before was unimaginable. We realize that our faith-filled action will not return void, and that the hope we placed in God and the 12 steps is paying dividends well beyond our wildest expectations.

The Twelve Rewards

1. We can all have Hope, instead of desperation;
2. Faith, instead of despair;
3. Courage, instead of fear;
4. Peace of Mind, instead of confusion;
5. Self-respect, instead of self-contempt;
6. Self-confidence, instead of helplessness;
7. The respect of others, instead of their pity and contempt;
8. A clean conscience, instead of a sense of guilt;
9. Real friendships, instead of loneliness;
10. A clean pattern of life, instead of a purposeless existence;
11. the love and understanding of our families, instead of their doubts and fears;
12. and the freedom of a happy life, instead of the bondage of an alcoholic obsession.

All this and more through AA, are we grateful enough? Gratitude will continue the miracle of your sobriety, I found that out.

No man should think that sobriety comes easily.

Sobriety doesn't come by merely wanting it,
or by shouting for it.

Sobriety is built, brick by brick,
by total effort and belief.

And it is built in the living faith that,
in the end,
with the help of his Higher Power,
man can achieve mastery of his destiny.

Intergroup Outreach Committee Report

As you may have noticed in the May financial report for June, the International Women's Conference Committee was especially generous in their distribution of excess funds after their very successful Conference last February. At the last monthly Board Meeting your Board of Directors deliberated over the use of this windfall and considered many ways to benefit our Fellowship, and the decision was made to designate the money as a means of supporting actions of the Intergroup Outreach Committee. An initial program we have begun is the distribution of 5 Big Books, 5 Newcomer Packets and a Secretary Handbook to each of the nearly 200 Meetings in our directory that have no Intergroup Representation. The gift is given with the following letter of explanation:

Dear AA Secretary;

Your Central Office Board of Directors has chosen your Meeting as one of many in our local area to be the recipient of 5 Big Books & 5 Newcomer Packets to provide support the next 5 Newcomers that attend your Meeting. We appreciate your being available to the Alcoholics in our local community who seek Recovery and are grateful for your service representing Alcoholics Anonymous in the way you do.

The fact that you include your meeting time and location information to us to be published in our local Meeting Directory means a lot to us as an arm of service to our Fellowship; and since our Office had a generous donation from the International Women's Conference held here last February, the "give-it-away-to-keep it" foundation of our Program can have no better application than to give to you what we can in support of the Newcomers who walk into your door.

Please feel free to keep us informed of any changes your meeting may have and use the Secretary Handbook we are also providing you in this delivery in any way that is beneficial to your group.

Thanks for your service;

We are here for you in any way we can be, let us know...

David M.

Central Office manager

This opportunity has generated a spirit of service in this office that is unprecedented. I am so deeply grateful to the International Women's Conference Committee for their contribution that makes this possible. Leadership by example in this action-based program of ours can be done many ways, but this project allows us to set the bar for contributing to the Fellowship that supports the Recovery of the newest newcomers in a very simple and direct way.

The leadership that Dyana S. has taken on as the Outreach Committee chair is very inspiring to many of us. She is instrumental in involving new people to be of service in this project. Last Friday, we not only had the morning volunteer, David T., assembling Newcomer Packets for us, but during her 1:00 shift Dyana brought three new volunteers with her who assisted by placing labels (that have our Central Office information on them) into the Big Books to be donated, then they arraigned 20 packages for delivery. Also contributing to the labeling of the books and assembly of the Newcomer Packets were Eileen C. during her regular weekly volunteer shift, and Paul S. who delivered two of those packages to meetings in Morongo and Yucca Valley.

All are invited to participate with us in this project, if you are interested, or have Sponsees that need to fill idle time, please contact me at Central Office and we will work out times and things to do that fit your abilities.

In Service:

David M.
