What does Central Office Do for Me???

1. We carry the message to the still suffering alcoholic via telephone calls and 12-step work
2. Insure a steady supply of literature for our groups at an attractive price.
3. Provide a telephone contact service for AA meeting information and other information such as recovery places, other 12-step contact information, other Central Office numbers, etc.
4. Publish a monthly newsletter by and for our local fellowship with local events and articles by local AA members on the Steps, Traditions and Concepts.
5. Assist in forming new groups or help existing groups in carrying out our purpose
6. Help in any way to carry out the sole purpose of Alcoholics Anonymous.
7. Attempt to unify our efforts to achieve this purpose

Tradition Three

The only requirement for A.A. membership is a desire to stop drinking.

Tradition three in my opinion is the most important to keep fresh in our minds when dealing with a newcomer. It doesn't state that you have to stop drinking or that you need to stop drinking. It simply states that the person has to have a desire to stop drinking. I have seen many people struggle with this disease and continually feel the need to go out and do more research. I was one of those people for a long time as it took me ten years to become willing to do what it takes. Each time I came back to AA I didn't know if I was going to be able to stay sober however, I had a desire to stop drinking. Along with that desire comes my membership to Alcoholics Anonymous.

That brings me back to this tradition being important for the newcomer. When we see that person going in and out of the rooms let's try and remember that he is a member of the same fellowship as us and if we reach out our hand to him or her we may just be saving a life. And that just maybe by our conversation with him that person realizes that he or she doesn't have to do any more "research."

Step Three

Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.

When I arrived in Alcoholics Anonymous 33 years ago I was clearly "Self Will Run Riot". There was no power greater than myself; and therefore there was destruction all around me.

I had no idea where my will stopped, and where God's will took over!.....But with a loud, face to face, yell I was informed that (my will), never begins if I am praying and waiting.

While I was in an AA treatment center (hospital), my first few days, something divine happened to give me hope and belief that I could stay sober, One Day at a Time. I later began to see it as being one of God's Prodigals, who suddenly saw the mess that surrounded me, and began heading home to my Father, God.

I have come to realize that it is not always possible to be happy. It is possible to have joy through the holy spirit, and/or God. Some would describe it as a Calm Centeredness.

It is a solid assurance that laughs, if given a chance. It is unwavering confidence that cannot help but look on the bright side, and your smile can't help but last.

May you find Him NOW.

Concept Three

To insure effective leadership, we should endow each element of A.A. - the Conference, the General Service Board and its service corporations, staffs, committees, and executives - with a traditional Right of Decision."

"As a traditional means of creating & maintaining a clearly defined working relation between the groups, the conference, the AA General Service Board and its several service corporations, staffs, committees and executives, and of thus insuring their effective leadership, it is here suggested that we endow each of these elements of world service with a traditional 'Right of Decision' "

As background for this Concept, you should be familiar with the Conference Charter and the Bylaws of the General Service Board, both of which are found in The A.A. Service Manual. For, except for the specific directions in these documents, every trusted servant and every A.A. entity---at all levels of service---has the right "to decide...how they will interpret and apply their own authority and responsibility to each particular problem or situation as it arises." That is, they can "decide which problems they will dispose of themselves and upon which matters they will report, consult, or ask specific directions." This is the essence of 'The Right of Decision.' "

But this right also means the Fellowship must have trust in its "trusted servants." If the groups instruct their G.S.R.s rather than giving them a "Right of Decision," then the area conference is hamstrung. If the G.S.R.s instruct the area delegates rather than giving them a "Right of Decision," then the General Service Conference is hamstrung. As Bill points out, "our Conference delegates are primarily the servants of A.A. as they should. cast their votes. . .according to the best dictates of their own judgment and conscience at that time."

Similarly, if the General Service Board, acting through its subsidiary boards, "were to attempt to manage" the General Service Office and the A.A. Grapevine "in detail, then....the staff members.....would quickly become demoralized; they would be turned into buck-passers and rubber stamps; their choice would be to rebel and resign, or to submit and rot."

Bill warns against using "The Right of Decision" as an excuse for failure to make the proper reports of actions taken; or for exceeding a clearly defined authority; or for failing to consult the proper people before making an important decision. But he concludes:

"Our entire A.A. program rests squarely upon the principal of mutual trust. We trust God, we trust A.A., and we trust each other."

Frequently Asked Questions About A.A.'s History

from www.aa.org

Q. What is the history behind reading The Lord's Prayer at meetings?

A. It is mentioned in Dr. Bob and the Good Oldtimers that the prayer was used from the very beginning in the Fellowship, at least as early as 1938 and 1939. In those days there was no AA literature, so the early groups relied heavily on existing prayers, and on the Bible and Oxford Group literature, for inspiration and guidance.

Bill W. commented several times in his correspondence about the early use of the Lord's Prayer. He wrote a letter to a member in 1959 in which he stated:

"This practice probably came from the Oxford Groups who were influential in the early days of A.A. You have probably noted in A.A. Comes of Age what the connection of these people with A.A. really was. I think saying the Lord's Prayer was a custom of theirs following the close of each meeting. Therefore it quite easily got shifted into a general custom among us."

Bill also wrote the following in a 1955 letter:

"Of course there are always those who seem to be offended by the introduction of any prayer whatever into an ordinary A.A. gathering. Also it is sometimes complained that the Lord's Prayer is a Christian document. Nevertheless, this Prayer is of such widespread use and recognition that the argument of its Christian origin seems to be a little far-fetched. It is also true that most AA's believe in some kind of god and that communication and strength is obtainable through his grace. Since this is the general consensus, it seems only right that at least the Serenity Prayer and the Lord's Prayer be used in connection with our meetings. It does not seem necessary to defer to the feelings of our agnostic and atheist newcomers to the extent of completely hiding 'our light under a bushel.' However, around here, the leader of the meeting usually asks those to join him in the Lord's Prayer who feel that they would care to do so. The worst that happens to the objectors is that they have to listen to it. This is doubtless a salutary exercise in tolerance at their stage of progress."

As Bill's 1955 letter indicates, recitation of the Lord's Prayer at meetings has clearly been controversial in some circles almost since the beginning. The GSO has responded to letters on this issue since the 1940s and 1950s. It is continually addressed in articles in Box 459 and the AA Grapevine, and has often been asked about at the General Service Conference. For example, at the 1962 Conference, in one of the Ask-It Basket questions, this subject was broached: "Question: What is the procedure for dealing with individuals who refuse to stand during recitation of the Lord's Prayer? Answer: Participation--or non-participation--in recitals of the Lord's Prayer should be considered a matter of personal conscience and decision."
