Ten Alcoholics

10 Alcoholics, all in a line.

One got to thinking
--then there were Nine.

9 Alcoholics, one said, "Wait!"

A near beer can't hurt!"
then there were Eight.

8 Alcoholics, lookin' up to heaven.

One cut out meetings
--then there were Seven.

7 Alcoholics, doing service for kicks.

One started grumbling
--then there were Six.

6 Alcoholics, glad to be alive.

'Til one smoked pot
--then there were Five.

5 Alcoholics, greeters at the door.

One played the Big Shot
--then there were Four.

4 Alcoholics, for fun and for free.

One's case was "different"
--then there were Three.

3 Alcoholics, knowing what to do.

One rewrote the Big Book
--then there were Two.

2 Alcoholics, having some fun.

One started lying
--then there was One.

1 Alcoholic, talking to HP,

"If only one is sober
--then I'm glad it's me."

“Life Gets Lifey”

I have no more excuses to drink. Life is full of a range of emotions and feelings. I choose to endure my emotions and deal with them in a healthy way rather than numbing them. I am grateful to be able to feel and feel for those around me now. Self –pity and selfishness is something I try to avoid. It kept me sick. I now try to practice gratitude.

Mind of an alcoholic.

In the mind of an alcoholic my thoughts at times are skewed. My disease progresses as each day passes, my brain begins to romanticize the gruesome past. That is why I need to stay in Recovery and practice the steps every day. I am grateful to know that it's my disease talking to me and I am able to fight back. I am beyond grateful to be sober

It's true that life is unfair. I have noticed, however, that it somehow does not bother me as much when life is unfair in MY favor!

My level of pain is often defined by the difference between how I want things to be and how they really are.

Faith

When you have come to the edge
Of all the light you know,
And are about to step off into
The darkness of the unknown,
Faith is knowing
One of the following two things will happen:
There will be something solid to stand on
Or you will be taught how to fly.

Happy, joyous & free!

Although she wrote in her online dating profile that she wanted a guy with a sense of humor, this was not what Mindy had envisioned.

Step One

We admitted we were powerless over alcohol - that our lives had become unmanageable.

My understanding of this step is this:

1. We = I am not alone, others have done this too.
2. Admitted = to accept as true or valid.
3. We Were = past (before walking in the door of AA).
4. Powerless = have lost the battle.
5. Over alcohol = above the drink
6. That our lives = I am not alone, others have done it too.
7. Had = past (before walking in the door of AA).
8. Become = to undergo change or development.
9. Unmanageable = unable to achieve one's purpose.

So when we put them all together, it means that once we make the first step as others have done, we are not alone. We accept the fact that we have lost the battle with alcohol, we cannot change or develop beyond this point, and we are unable to achieve our purpose because alcohol has control over us. Now that we have made this step, we open the door for the second step and are well on our way to gaining back control of our lives.

Friday Night Speaker Meeting, ABC Recovery Center, Indio

When I came back after a slip, a guy said to me: 'I have information for you that might be difficult for you to hear. You are NOT going to stay sober in the fellowship of Alcoholics Anonymous. You are one of those people that is going to have to use the PROGRAM of Alcoholics Anonymous.' --- then he offered to show me the difference.

My life is like one of those Jenga puzzles . . . I don't talk to my sponsor for awhile, so it's like taking out a piece of the puzzle and putting it to the side, then I cut back on meetings so I've taken out another piece of the puzzle and put it to the side . . . then I get to a place where my foundation is shaky and I don't know what else I can take out and put to the side without the whole thing falling down around my ears!

I've learned that I can't always control my thoughts but today I don't have to let my thoughts control me.

Bill says in the Twelve and Twelve that Step Six is the Step that "separates the men from the boys."

It has been my experience that Step Nine is the step that separates alcoholics who are willing to go to any lengths, from the alcoholic who is willing to risk drinking again.

Today I am grateful that I don't need to laugh at others . . . I have my own entertainment center sitting on my neck!

Tradition One

Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends upon A.A. unity.

The long form of tradition one states “we are a small part of a great whole”.

What a change to the old way of life, when we thought so much of ourselves, made drastic, dumb life changes without any help from another person. We did it all by ourselves which brought many of us close to death.

Then we walk through the doors of Alcoholics Anonymous and learn the ‘Great Whole’ is the brothers and sisters of Alcoholics Anonymous of which we become a part.

When so done, AA continues to grow and we learn as a group the AA design for living.

John E
Alkies Only, Sacred Heart Church, Palm Desert

Before A.A. I judged myself by my intentions, while the world was judging me by my actions.

Alcoholics Anonymous, 4th Edition, Acceptance was the Answer, page 418

The Promises of Alcoholism

1. If we are casual with this phase of our development, we will be drunk before we are halfway through.
2. We are going to know a new imprisonment and a new misery.
3. We will relive the past and won't be able to shut the door on it.
4. We will comprehend the word CONFLICT and we will know PAIN.
5. No matter how far down the scale we have gone, we'll sink even lower.
6. That feeling of uselessness and self-pity will deepen.
7. We will gain interest in selfish things and lose interest in our fellows.
8. Self esteem will slip away.
9. Our whole attitude and outlook upon life will SUCK.
10. Fear of people, and of economic insecurity will multiply.
11. We will intuitively know how to run from situations, which never used to bother us.
12. We will suddenly realize that God would never have done to us what we are doing to ourselves.

Are these extravagant promises? We think not! They are being fulfilled among us every day -- sometimes quickly, sometimes slowly. They will ALWAYS materialize if we continue to drink.

Concept One

Final responsibility and ultimate authority for A.A. world services should always reside in the collective conscience of our whole Fellowship.

The Concepts were developed out of necessity, the necessity that our founders were mortal. A structure for the continuance of AA World Service needed to be developed. The Twelve Concepts of World Service is that structure. Concept 1 is based upon Tradition 2 "For our group purpose, there is but one ultimate authority – a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern".

The 12 Concepts gave AA the upside-down triangle to represent the service structure of Alcoholics Anonymous. The triangle depicts how our service structure works, from the individual AA groups (Concept 1) at the top, the District below the groups, then the Area, to the annual General Service Conference at the bottom of the triangle. There will be new service needs and new problems will arise. Structural changes will be necessary and these changes will be driven by the collective conscience of our fellowship (Concept 1), starting with our individual groups consciences.

A Power Greater Than Myself
A Program Greater Than My Own
By Rick R.

Never, that I can recall, have I attended a meeting where someone hasn't referred to his or her higher power, and as I see it, most people that stay around for any length of time come to some sort of terms with, or understanding of, a power greater than themselves that works for them. Once that hurdle is cleared, they seem to settle into a more comfortable way of life. There are also those that come to us with a strong religious affiliation, and they sometimes share that the AA program helps them to enhance their faith. Others come here that are atheist or agnostic, and the program works for them as well as it does for anyone else. Then there are those who, for whatever reason, have trouble clearing those hurdles and sometimes spend years struggling with this issue of, God as we understand him.

I believe that as long as AA exists, we will witness these kinds of quandaries in new members who are conditioned by the environments from which they came, and I don't claim to have a surefire answer to what makes us different, other than what I have learned about myself, and how I have come to see things as I attempt to resolve my own mental blocks. I know that I was biased when I first entered the program probably due to my failed attempt at religion as a child. This had little to do with religion but more to do with the fact that I had not mentally evolved enough to understand it at the age of six. Fortunately for me I recognized, early in my sobriety, that I could take the steps of the program with the minimum understanding of God, or a higher power, after all, that's what it tells me in the Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions (12&12). It says that even an atheist got through the hoop with room to spare.

I was at a meeting recently when a member was trying to articulate how he had come to terms with his faith in a higher power and as he was poking fun at himself trying to fit it all together and make sense of it so everyone could understand, he finally threw his hands up in the air and said, with a smile, "Well, that's how it works for me". We all joined him in laughter because we have seen it so many times before. As I was listening to him, a thought came to me as the result of what he shared, and as we were leaving the meeting, I was following closely behind him, I offered that thought to him. I said, "Maybe if, instead of calling it A Power Greater Than Myself, we could just refer to it as A Program Greater Than My Own". He laughed and said, "That's what I was trying to say."

It's clear to me now, that it wasn't as important to identify what or who God is, or what my concept of a power greater than myself was at the time. I found it more important at the time to proceed through the rest of the program and do the things that are suggested. The main thing that I had to do was to accept outside input, especially when it is based on sound, well-established principles. Many successful people in the program have come to understand the concept of a higher power in that way. Sometimes it's hard to grasp it all at once. Don't let that stop you. I would encourage anyone who is having trouble with this issue to consider the "Program Greater Than My Own" idea. Time and experience will help you along the road to understanding. After all, even the militant atheist cleared the hoop with room to spare.

Book of the month

$17.00

$17.00

A Book of Fellowship 90 Years of Sharing and Service

Normally $20.00 - this month $17.00

The 2025 International Convention Souvenir book, "A BOOK OF FELLOWSHIP: 90 Years of Love & Service" is a lavishly illustrated celebration of our Fellowship, its vibrant history, and A.A. around the world today. In these full-color pages, you'll read the inspiring stories of Bill W., Dr. Bob, and the early A.A. s who spread the word of Alcoholics Anonymous, one alcoholic to another, in ever-widening circles. A treasure trove of archival and new material, this autograph book-size volume brings to vivid life the message of Recovery, Service and Unity that lies at the very heart of our program. Including blank pages for notes and autographs, "A BOOK OF FELLOWSHIP: 90 Years of Love & Service" will make a one-of-a-kind keepsake of the 2025 Vancouver Convention. In English.

CONCEPTS CHECKLIST

A service piece for home groups, districts, areas

Some of these discussion points were originally developed by an A.A. group and further developed by the trustees' Literature Committee to be distributed by the General Service Office. While this checklist is intended as a starting point for discussion by groups, districts or areas, individual A.A. members may find it useful along with our cofounder Bill W.'s writings, a service sponsor if you have one and reflection on your own service experience. Additional information about the Concepts can be found in The A.A. Service Manual/Twelve Concepts for World Service and "The Twelve Concepts Illustrated" pamphlet.
(The Concepts stated here are in the short form.)

Concept One

Final responsibility and ultimate authority for A.A. world services should always reside in the collective conscience of our whole fellowship.

- Does our group have a general service representative (G.S.R.)? Do we feel that our home group is part of A.A. as a whole and do our group's decisions and actions reflect that?
- Do we hold regular group conscience meetings encouraging everyone to participate? Do we pass that conscience on to the district, area, or the local intergroup meetings?
- Is the "collective conscience" of Alcoholics Anonymous at work in my home group? In my area?
- Where do we fit in the upside-down service triangle of A.A.?
- Are we willing to do what it takes to insure that our democracy of world service will work under all conditions?

My sponsor says the good thing about procrastination is that you always have something planned for tomorrow.

I'd like another drink I think
Another drink to make me pink
I think I'll drink until I stink
I'll drink until I cannot blink

Perhaps I'll have a shot of rye
The rye I spy with my own eye
Some rye to make me fly so high
I think that I can touch the sky

Or maybe I will have some rum
It's not so dumb to want some rum
I'll drink and fall upon my bum
Or maybe contemplate my thumb

Some vodka would be very nice
Or wine, or maybe scotch on ice
Perhaps Kahlua would entice
I'll drink it once, I'll drink it twice

Perhaps some gin to make me grin
It's not a sin to want some gin
A 26 will make me spin
And then I will begin again

I want some beer to make me cheer
Hurrah! Hurrah! A cheer for beer!
I will not stick it in my ear
Hurrah! Hurrah! I'm here for beer!

I'll drink with my friends Jack and Ron
I'll drink until my liver's gone
I'll invite Sam and Bud and you
And Captain Morgan can come, too

I'm loaded now, I have to go
My brain is working very slow
There's just one thing I need to know:
Where is the can? I have to go!
